LIBERTIES OF YOUTH.

At this day and time when there is so much to attract, detract and distract we should make a contract to attract in a proper way. Things that we were not permitted to engage in in our youthful days have now become pleasant pastimes. Too much liberty is given to children. We should remember that the liberties of youth are the chains of old age. It is human to err, and especially with children, and if they are allowed too many liberties they are sure to err too many times. It may seem hard to demand and enforce strict obedience, it may seem burdensome, but men grow stronger by carrying heavy burdens.

One of the characteristics of true manhood is a high regard for honor, even in small matters. The laborer should be as willing to go to work at a stated hour as he is to quit at a stated hour. Dead beats are numerous all over the country and they become such by little. To much liberty in childhood and youth is a sure producer of dead-beats. Children are prone to procrastinate and when the habit has once taken deep root it is hard to break. Parental interference should step in with the first act of procrastination with the child. A golden opportunity lost yesterday between sunrise and sunset. It has flown and cannot be recalled. Don't lose any more.

Evil thoughts fly through the mental horizon very frequently, but they need not find a place of repose there, if they do they will eventually be brought into action and evil will result therefrom. These are fed by the liberties of youth. The parent is expected to be the guide for the children and if the child grows to be a bad man the responsibility, largely, rests upon the parent. Too much liberty tends to recklessness, and recklessness leads to destruction.

Uncle Joe Cannon refused to take dinner at the White House because Chief Justice Harlan would precede him and have the honor of taking Mrs. Roosevelt into dinner. We have all seen the transformations in our statesmen. Men coming sockless to Congress return to their astonished communities wearing patent leather shoes and white spats. Senator without a dinner coat after a few years in Washington may be seen coming home at five o'clock in the morning in the dress suits. A statesman appearing at cabinet receptions in high hat and tan shoes may be met in Europe the following year traveling with a valet. There was a time within the memory of man when Uncle Joe considered a necktie a superfluity, and a clean shirt and a vest all the dinner costume that the most fastidious could desire. But all this is changed. He is speaker of the house and he will take Mrs. Roosevelt into dinner or he will dine somewhere else. He is going to have an automobile and will probably wear a dog skin coat and goggles and the new member who has grown far sighted trying to catch the speaker's eye will have a harder time than ever. Uncle Joe has emerged from his cocoon. Hereafter he will be the butterfly of fashion.

Postmaster General Wynne is engaged in cleaning house for the next occupant Mr. Cortelyou. The task is not pleasant but Mr. Wynne has done it amiably and well.

REPEAL TAX COLLECTOR LAW

House Passed Bill To Again Consolidate The Office of Sheriff and Tax Gatherer

Raleigh, Feb. 23, 1905.
The law obtained by the democrats, from the Legislature of 1903, to separate the office of Sheriff and tax collector was last week repealed by the House of Representatives and this put the matter "up to" Senator Toms. During the absence of the Senator, who was off with the committee reviewing the oyster fields in some of the eastern counties, Mr. Rector presented the bill in the House told the committee there was no opposition to it and secured a favorable report without a dissenting voice. The day it all happened I was confined in the Senate clerk's office until 4 p. m. and had to spend the remainder of the afternoon and evening until 10 o'clock measuring matter for the State printer, and consequently had no opportunity to go to the House at all. Did not know the bill had been introduced until I reached my room late at night.

On the following morning I hunted up Mr. Rector and asked him when a hearing before the committee would be had, receiving the reply that "he did not know, as no meeting had been announced," upon his statement I went on about my work ignorant of the fact that it had been rushed before the committee already on the day previous. A little later, however, one of the House clerks, who happened to be present when the bill was considered by the committee, came over an informed me that a favorable report had been secured. I then sent Mr. Rector a request for a re-reference of the bill, but he refused. A motion was made to that effect, however, but voted down upon the promise of Mr. Rector to leave the matter with Senator Toms when it reached the Senate, inasmuch as the committee had reported favorably.

Upon his return Senator Toms joined heartily into the fight, the result of which was wired to THE HUSTLER last week. Rector came over to the hearing before the committee and attempted to deliver himself of the same speech he made during the campaign last fall and in his letters over the signature of Brownlow Jackson. This was not the kind of argument the committee wanted, and the chairman demanded that the speaker address himself to the subject, whereupon I arose and asked that Mr. Rector be allowed to proceed as his speech was exactly what our friends wanted democrats to hear. He then continued his denunciation of our party until the chairman "cut him down." Senator Toms stood up like a man and urged the committee to report the bill unfavorably and Senator Alexander acquiesced in the suggestion. Mr. Toms presented a petition, containing a majority of the democrats, asking for the law to stand as it is. At the conclusion of his speech the writer was called upon for a statement and addressed the committee in opposition to the bill. An unfavorable report was secured by a vote of four to two and Bryan, republican, of Yancy, gave notice of a minority report, which necessitated a fight on the floor of the Senate. Senator Toms proved equal to the occasion and Mr. Alexander stood by him to the end. Result: 26 against and 8 for the bill only three democrats voting in the affirmative. Thus ended the first chapter, entirely satisfactory to our "folks."

At this writing a bill, introduced by Rector, is pending in the House to authorize the county commissioners to elect the Tax Collector, but there seems to be little likelihood of its passage. In the event that body should let itself through Senator Toms and Alexander tell me it will be promptly put to sleep in the senate, where the sentiment is decidedly favorable to the working democrats of Henderson county. Rector injured his cause before the committee last week and will do so again if an opportunity is accorded to him.

Those opposed to the proposed election upon the question of dispensary in Hendersonville are in the majority, as indicated by petitions received by Senator Toms. 108 names appear upon each petition, but a goodly number, who signed the one asking for an election, state "that upon reflection" they now ask to appear against the proposition. 165 ladies ask that the bill be not passed. The matter has been postponed indefinitely. The Senate committee appears to be averse to passing the bill.

Several matters of local import are pending, but I have not had an opportunity to ascertain their provisions. It is my purpose to write a synopsis of all the new laws affecting Henderson county, for publication, soon after the close of the session.

It is probable that the present Board of Education will be continued, unless there should be a general demand for a change.

SUIT FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Asheville Girl Asks $50,000 for Alleged Broken Vows

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 16.—A special to the Washington Post from Union City, Tenn., says:

"Miss Lola Walker, by her next friend, Mrs. Cullom, through her attorneys, F. W. Moore and Lannon & Stanfield, has brought suit against Richard Edwards, a capitalist and club man of this city, St. Louis and Memphis, for $50,000 as damages for breach of promise.

"Edwards met Miss Walker at Asheville, N. C., and is alleged to have taken her to New York and placed her in a school and furnished her plenty of money to pay her way. This occurred about one year ago. Edwards afterward returned to Tennessee and was married to Miss Gibbs, of Union City, a young woman belonging to a prominent family. Meanwhile, it is charged, he continued to correspond with Miss Walker. A few days ago she learned that he was married, and she came at once to Tennessee from Asheville and brought the suit. She is nineteen years old, a decided brunette, and is highly educated.

"Mr. Edwards is one of the richest young men in Tennessee, his estimated wealth being placed at some $300,000. He was educated abroad. He has retained able counsel and will fight the suit."

A Touching Story.

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough, or cold. At the Justus Drug store, 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The old idea of our grandmothers that a man and wife can live jointly on less than either of them can live separately is not suited to our present method of living.

In all the fashionable centres of the country throughout this zero weather may be seen fine horses shorn "clipped" to the skin, shivering and writhed in the intense cold while their drivers have extra warm underclothing, heavy overcoats with fur mufflers and fur gloves. Is this the twentieth century and have we a Christian civilization?

Under the Illinois law bigamist Hoch cannot be severely punished. A fit punishment would be to deliver him into the hands of his surviving wives.

Women in Kansas will have full citizenship in Kansas after this it remains to be seen whether they will use it any less foolishly.

The fearful icy and snowy weather we have had for the past few weeks has worked greatly against the beautiful birds. Some of our people were thoughtful enough to put out grain and bread to help them to tide over the severe weather yet many of the little innocents were found dead either from the effects of the cold or hunger.

Exactly one year after the great fire in Baltimore the Baltimore American moved into its new building. Pretty active for an old journal of 131 years.

The spirit of hazing has infected even the primary classes in our schools. A seven-year-old boy in New York who failed of promotion to a higher class was teased by his classmates until he dropped dead. Nearly every man remembers a time in his boyhood when his only regret was that he couldn't drop dead.

Coxey and his army tried to march up the capital steps. Then a bicyclist was arrested for attempting it and now an ex-ball player of Pennsylvania is going to try to run a 16-horse power automobile up them. Just because a few men have gotten into Congress so easily is not a sign that just anything can get up the capital steps.

Letter to J. L. Orr.

Dear Sir, A great many people will see your house in the next ten years. We want it to show what Devoe lead and zinc will do. We should like you to paint it, and then not paint it again for ten years—unless it need repainting.

We'd like such a sample as that in every town in the country—with a notice about it in the local paper: "Mr. Orr's house was painted ten years ago with Devoe lead-and-zinc, and has never been repainted. The color is not so bright as it was; but the paint is as ever to keep out water."

A good lead and oil job is expected to last three years; it is a good one that lasts three years; it generally does not. Devoe lead-and-zinc lasts twice as long if not—

"If you have any fault to find with this paint either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

We want your house as a sample, and you as a witness.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & Co.
